WASHINGTON, December 10. HOUSE.

House bills were introduced and referred authorizing collectors to grant special orders for unloading steamships after night also establishing a new scale of fees and salaries for custom house officers, and repealing the bankruptcy act; by Mr. Rice, of Kentucky, repealing the special tax on retailers of leaf tobacco; by Mr. Arthur, of Kentucky, repealing the enforcement act, abolishing the duty on bank checks, &c., and abolishing the special tax on leaf tobacco; by Mr. Peck, of Ohio, to amend the act of the 23d of May, 1872, for holding U. S. Courts in Toledo; by Mr. McHenry, to beild a railroad bridge across the Ohio at Owensboro.

The House then resumed consideration of the bill reported last session by Mr. Coburn, of Indians, to enable honorably discharged soldiers and sallors, their widows and orphan children, to acquire homesteads of public lands, with authority to assign their carrilleates, and least to be a supplementation of the supplementatio House bills were introduced and refer

The bill was debated until the expira-ion of the morning hour, when it went over until to morrow. The House then went into Committee of the Whole (Mr. Dawes in the Chair) on the Indian appropriation bill.

Mr. Sargent, who reported the bill from Already the Register has chalked up on the Committee on Appropriations, made a general statement about it. He said that the amount appropriated for the cur-rent year for the expenses of the Indian service was $6,362,062; the amount pro

Storrs, the two latter being named as executors. The counsel for the contestants then said he hoped that the opponents of the will would acquiesce in the will of 1871. He thought the will executed by Mr. Greeley before his death did great injustice, inasmuch as it gave all of the property to Miss Ida, with the qualification that one-half of it was to be used by her at her own discretion for the support and education of her sister Gabrielle, that some of the relatives value of individual property increasing in one year from $3,924,000 to $9,941,000.

Mr. Sherman, of the Finance Committee, reported the bill of Mr. Pomeroy, prohibiting the sale of liquors in the District of Columbia, and moved to refer the subject to the Judiciary Committee. The Finance Committee was in favor of a law imposing a penalty for the benefit of the wives or creditors of drunkards upon those who sold them the liquor, but the Mississippi to assign to her sister one-half of the property, also to grant a suitable annuity to the relatives. The Misses Greeley then declined to consider any proposals for a compromise, and the proceedings for the contest of the will ensued on the ground of incapacity of the testator to execute the will of 1873. The first witness was Miss Sampson, who testified that she became witness to the will on the day Mr. Greeley died; Mr. Greeley was then, a few hours before his death, conscious and rational. The Great Gale-Disasters by Land

New Orleans, Dec. 10.—Governor Warmoth filed the following petition in the Eight District Court this morning:

The petition of Henry O. Warmoth, of the Parish of Orleans, respectfully represents that he is Governor of the State of Louisiana, and that he is and has been since the year 1868 in possession of said office and discharged its functions, and he is entitled to discharge its duties until he shall be legally removed or a successor shall be duly qualified. One P. B. S. Pinchback, of the Parish of Orleans, has this, the 9th day of December, 1872. at. London, December 10.—The gale con tinued yesterday, but not with the severi-ty of Sunday. Dispatches are bringing intelligence of disaster by see and land. The damage in this city is considerable.
